

Benediction for December 11th, 2016

Sisters. Brothers.

You are a people on mission.

Sent forth to be the church.

Imperfect and messy though we may be.

Now depart, carrying grace and goodness,

Compassion and thanksgiving.

Pour out you lives in love.

Let God use you to His glory.

Do all the good you can.

By all the means you can.

In all the ways you can.

In all the places you can.

At all the times you can.

To all the people you can.

As long as ever you can.

Ecclesia, called out ones.

Have faith, share hope, be love.
