

Benediction for June 11, 2017

Learn from Christ, trust him, delight in him, hand your daily affairs to him, and you will never walk alone or serve without the eternal joy which can not be taken from you.

Let the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, keep your hearts and minds in the knowledge of God and of his true Son, Christ Jesus our Lord;

and the blessing of the fullness of God,
the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit,
will be with you today and ever more.

Go forth to live the church.

Bearing faith, hope, and love to all in your path.
